NOTES ABOUT SUMMER EVENTS WITH IMPACT

Eugene Emeralds Baseball: From June 17 through September 2, Eugene Emeralds Single A Short Season Baseball takes place at PK Park. All games start at 7:05 p.m. except Sunday games, which start at 5:01 p.m. For schedule and more info, go to milb.com/index.jsp?sid=1461.

Oregon Bach Festival: From June 21 through July 10, Oregon Bach Festival concerts at Beall Hall and other UO School facilities occur almost every day in the afternoons and evenings.

IntroDUCKtion: A mandatory UO student orientation for incoming UO freshmen and their parents. Each session is attended by approximately 700 participants and many attendees stay in the residence halls during their visits. Attendees receive parking permits for UO parking on campus.

Overnight Camps and Conferences: Each summer the UO hosts dozens of overnight camps and conferences in the residence halls and throughout campus. Expect participants moving in and out of residence halls and traveling around campus. Camps with most significant impact due to numbers of participants and/or noise are listed.

Summer Practices at Autzen: Beginning Monday, August 1, twice-a-day football and soccer practices begin on the field west of Autzen Stadium and Papé Field, respectively. Expect amplification of music.

The 2016 US Olympic Team Trials—Track and Field come to Hayward Field in July! TrackTown16 is put on by TrackTown USA with support from the University of Oregon, the City of Eugene, and other partners. Here's information on the impact of the build-out around Hayward Field and of the event itself.

Projected attendance: 17,000 at Hayward Field daily; an additional 5,000 in fan festival area.

Please come and join in the fun, even if you don’t have tickets! The fan festival is free, and live competition is broadcast throughout the fan festival area on Agate Street, East 15th Avenue, and on the recreation fields to the west of Hayward Field. Visit TrackTown16.com for complete details.

Temporary structures build-out: The process of building temporary structures on the Hayward Field site for various track-and-field events this spring and summer has already started. Expect construction vehicles and periodic construction.

Street modifications: Starting May 29 and during the build-out and takedown processes, East 15th Avenue between Agate and University Streets will be one-way (going one direction) on a periodic basis. Look for signage.

Street closures and restrictions: Street closures begin on Friday, June 24, for purposes of constructing the fan festival area. All streets will reopen by July 22; many will open soon after the competition ends on July 10.

- Friday evening, June 24: East 15th Avenue closes between Onyx and Agate Streets. Agate Street closes between East 13th and East 18th Avenues. Intersection is closed at East 15th Avenue and Agate Street.
- Tuesday evening, June 28: East 18th Avenue restricted between Agate and University Streets.
- Wednesday evening, June 29: University Street restricted northbound from East 18th Avenue (southbound access only). East 15th Avenue is closed between Onyx and University Streets. Agate Street restricted between Franklin Boulevard and East 13th Avenue.

Event schedule: 17,000 attendance at Hayward Field daily; an additional 5,000 attendees in fan festival area. Ticket holders are encouraged to use shuttles from Autzen Stadium and South Eugene High School. Shuttle buses for spectators and athletes will travel through Fairmont, South University, and Amazon neighborhoods. Festival schedule is subject to change; visit TrackTown16.com for the most up-to-date information.
