

UO expanded free community COVID-19 testing amid Omicron surge

Since Jan. 10 testing has broadened to individuals with mild symptoms, in addition to extra asymptomatic testing capacity

African American Workshop and Lecture Series begins its sixth year

Each speaker engages with the campus community through a variety of events including public lectures, with several events for Black History Month

Booster requirement for campus community goes into effect

The initial deadline for students, faculty and staff to provide proof of their booster dose is March 18, and will be ongoing as more become booster eligible

Corona Corps receives funding to expand services statewide

The Oregon Health Authority has awarded $1 million to expand the reach and scope of the innovative UO COVID-19 containment program

Student Group once again offers tax help to community

The program focuses on low-moderate income individuals, and interested parties should fill out client interest form

New UO, LCC partnership eases path for student transfers

The agreement will help pinpoint and reduce barriers, as well as identify prospective transfer students earlier

Portland Internship Experience to offer 50 internships in summer 2022

The donor-funded program continues, connecting small businesses unable to provide paid internships with experience-hungry students in need of summer income

UOPD added 9 unarmed community service officers to campus

Influenced by feedback from UO students and a review of calls for service data, UOPD replaced seven sworn police officer positions with engagement-focused staff

Featured Events

UO events of potential impact, February - March

The office of Community Relations has compiled events from Athletics and beyond that may have an impact on neighbors in the coming months. Expect this space to expand to include broader campus events and construction updates in future iterations.

Other events for community members

AroundtheO is the official news source for the University of Oregon. The University of Oregon is an equal-opportunity, affirmative-action institution committed to cultural diversity and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Share this email:

This email was sent to .
To continue receiving our emails, please add us to your address book.
Unsubscribe

Having trouble viewing this email? View this email online.