

PARTY RESPONSIBLY

ORDINANCE OF UNRULY GATHERINGS

What is it?

A City of Eugene law that holds individuals criminally and civilly responsible for hosting or allowing an unruly event or social gathering where alcohol is served or consumed, and where any two or more violations occur. What could it cost you? Violators will be issued citations of as much as $1,000, and repeat offenders will also have to pay for police, fire, and emergency response costs as well as the cost of repairing damage to public property.

Know how to throw a responsible party and stay in control.

- 1. Control the guest list and keep the party small
- 2. No minors
- 3. Notify your neighbors of your plans
- 4. Control quantity and access to alcohol; prevent drunk driving
- 5. Clean up debris from your yard or the street

Ask for help and lower your chances of getting a fine.

OREGON'S MARIJUANA LAW AND UO STUDENTS

Learn what's legal and what's not at whatslegaloregon.com. Remember that the University of Oregon is a smoke-and tobacco-free campus. Students are subject to the Student Conduct Code, which prohibits use, possession, sale, distribution, or cultivation of marijuana. Even if you are 21 or over, your landlord has the right to prohibit manufacture and possession of marijuana at your rental property.

STUDENT CONDUCT CODE: OFF-CAMPUS ACCOUNTABILITY

The primary purpose of the Student Conduct Code is to establish the community standards and procedures necessary to maintain and protect an environment conducive to learning and in keeping with the educational objectives of the University of Oregon.

- Students may be held accountable for their behavior off campus, including occasions where students are warned or cited by a law enforcement agency
- The student conduct process is confidential
- Restorative justice may be an option for some student conduct cases

SEXUAL ASSAULT PREVENTION AND RESPONSE EFFORTS

Help for students who have experienced sexual assault, harassment, stalking, or dating or domestic violence.

The University of Oregon is committed to ensuring that all students have access to a high-quality learning experience and the opportunity to pursue their academic goals in a safe, supportive learning environment. The UO does not tolerate sexual harassment, including sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, gender-based harassment or bullying, or stalking on or off campus.

Students may call the 24-hour confidential Safe Hotline, 541-346-7233, to speak with a counselor who can connect them with other resources.
