* UO’s program that ensures academically-qualified Pell Grant-eligible Oregonians will have their tuition and fees paid through a combination of federal, state and university funds.

 The Oregon Opportunity Grant (OOG) is Oregon’s largest state-funded, need-based grant program for college students.

The UO is an equal-opportunity, affirmative-action institution committed to cultural diversity and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. This publication will be made available in accessible formats upon request.

82% of recent graduates are working, attending school, or performing some type of intensive service (e.g., Peace Corps). Among UO’s top 10 peer institutions, only two report a higher percentage of recent graduates working, attending school, or performing some type of intensive service.
