

Eugene and UO leaders welcome, educate off-campus students

Off-campus residents were given information on how to stay safe and be good neighbors

UO Board of Trustees authorizes presidential search committee

The 22-member search committee has been announced, as well as the debut of a webpage dedicated to the search

UO releases its annual Clery report on campus crime

The report includes crimes on campus and adjacent public areas, regardless of the victims' association with the university

The 21st Birthday Project helps students cut their risks

Participants can take part in sessions about alcohol use offered by peer educators and be entered to win prizes

UO wildfire experts share research at roundtable with Merkley

Communication, community planning, support for emergency managers lead priorities

UO launches new program to help students with basic needs

Staff will focus on helping gain access to food, housing and other essentials

Learn about PNW Indigenous foodways at the Clark Lecture

The first in the Oregon Humanities Center's 2022-23 "Belonging" series is free and open to the public

Along with fall weather, autumn arts events return to campus

Kick off the season with the Street Faire and keep it going with el Día de los Muertos, lectures, and exhibitions

Featured Events

UO events of potential impact, October-November

The office of Community Relations has compiled events from Athletics and beyond that may have an impact on neighbors in the coming months.

AroundtheO is the official news source for the University of Oregon. The University of Oregon is an equal-opportunity, affirmative-action institution committed to cultural diversity and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Share this email:

This email was sent to .
To continue receiving our emails, please add us to your address book.
Unsubscribe

Having trouble viewing this email? View this email online.

Subscribe to our email list.