The IAAF World Junior Championships come to Hayward Field in July! The event is organized and implemented by Track Town USA with support from the University of Oregon and other partners.

Please come join the fun; even if you don’t have tickets! Morning sessions Tuesday through Friday are free! Go to www.oregon14.com for more info.

Transportation
Lane Transit District is free system-wide July 22-27. Spectators are encouraged to use public transportation or UO parking lots and discouraged from parking in nearby neighborhoods.

Amplification
Every attempt is made to keep sound level from Hayward Field event announcements low enough that it can be heard inside the venue but not in the near-campus neighborhoods. Despite these efforts, neighbors have occasionally experienced excessively loud sound. Some amplification from Hayward is to be expected.

If the sound is so loud neighbors can hear plainly the words of the announcers with your doors and windows closed and you want to let event organizers know, you may report this with day, time, and location to khyatt@uoregon.edu.

HAYWARD FIELD EVENT SCHEDULE
