Dear UO students living off campus,

Welcome back for the 2014–15 academic year. We hope that you have a successful year. You are an important part of our campus community and the larger Eugene-Springfield area. Your success is our university's and community's success. Please make us proud and represent the University of Oregon with pride and integrity. We encourage you to:

- Meet your neighbors and be a good neighbor. By communicating and developing relationships with your neighbors, you may develop positive relationships and prevent future problems. Get tips on pages 4–5.
- Keep yourself and your belongings safe. Areas with a high density of student-renter-occupied housing may be targeted by criminals. Read pages 6–7 for tips on protecting yourself and your items of value.
- Know the law and party responsibly. A municipal ordinance that became effective in April 2013 holds individuals criminally and civilly responsible for hosting or allowing an unruly gathering at which alcohol is consumed and at least two or more violations occur. Tips for keeping your party under control are on pages 8–9. Pages 12–13 list municipal laws regarding noise, alcohol, and other illegal behaviors.
- Know your transportation options. Walking, using public transit and bicycling are all great and sustainable ways to get around and out of town (see more information on page 12). If you have a car see page 13 for tips on permits and parking.

This booklet contains many resources to help you have a successful year living off campus. We wish you the very best in the year ahead.

Know Your Rights and Responsibilities as a Renter

Eugene's rental housing standards

The City of Eugene's rental housing code aims to safeguard the health, property, and well-being of renters. It has established some minimum housing standards to protect you from living in unsafe or unkempt rental properties:

- Structural integrity: The roof, floors, and walls must support the loads prescribed by the applicable building code.
- Plumbing: Must be safe, sanitary, and free of defects, leaks, and obstructions.
- Heating: Must be able to maintain 68° F in all habitable rooms.
- Weatherproofing: Roof, exterior walls, and doors must prevent water leakage into living areas.
- Mold: If significant visible mold results from faulty weatherproofing or plumbing, repairs must include removing the mold.
- Security: Exterior doors and windows must be equipped with locks, and be in good enough condition to restrict access inside if desired.
- Smoke detection: Every dwelling must be equipped with an approved and functioning smoke detector.

Maximum of five unrelated people per dwelling

City of Eugene code prohibits more than five unrelated people from living in a single unit or dwelling. It's not illegal for landlords to rent apartments or houses with more than five bedrooms; it's only illegal for more than five unrelated people to live in the dwelling. Keep this important fact in mind before you sign your lease!

Hello thunder. Glad to hear you.

Behold the sound of a Thundercan. We hear it roll through our neighborhood each week when our neighbors walk their empty garbage and recycling bins in from the street.

Did you know garbage and recycling bins can remain on the curb for no more than twenty-four hours? It is a city ordinance, but it is also who we are. We are residents of Eugene who contribute to more livable, less cluttered streets, and enjoy making a little thunder along the way.

Spread the word. Encourage your neighbors. Roll Thunder.

Be a Good Neighbor

Neighborly tips for students living off campus

- 1 Introduce yourself to your neighbors who own and rent in the neighborhood. Exchange contact information, and learn a little about each other. Let your neighbors know you care about the neighborhood in which you live.
- 2 Communicate. Ask for assistance when you need it. Discuss concerns with your neighbors as soon as they arise and before they escalate into larger issues.
- 3 Keep the noise down. You're probably being too loud if neighbors can hear your conversation or music inside their homes. Respect requests from your neighbors, and know that they have the right to call the police if you are being too noisy.
- 4 Park your car in appropriate places. If you need to keep a car in the neighborhood, park only in driveways or parking spaces that are assigned to you, or in legal spaces on the street. Do not park across the sidewalk or on the grass, bark dust, or other landscaping.
Watch the UO Good Neighbor Video on the UO YouTube Channel.
- 5 Be responsible when throwing a party. See party management tips on page 8–9. For more tips on throwing a party, go to uodos.uoregon.edu, click on “Off-Campus Living,” then “Neighborhood and Community,” then “When Throwing a Party.”
- 6 Read the off-campus student newsletter, sent to you by e-mail. Can't find the latest newsletter? Go to uodos.uoregon.edu and click on “Off-Campus Living.”
- 7 Seek help if a conflict arises. If you want to explore how a facilitator or mediator might help with a situation, contact UO Conflict Resolution Services.
- 8 Get to know your neighborhood. You and every other Eugene resident belong to a neighborhood association. Find out more at eugene-or.gov/neighborhoods.

Tips for homeowners who have student neighbors

- 1 Introduce yourself. Welcome new student neighbors in person or with a note, invite new neighbors to a gathering, or exchange phone numbers. Letting students know you care and you are aware they are part of the neighborhood personalizes their role in it.
- 2 Share your expectations and experiences by letting student neighbors know when you need sleep or quiet, and let them know what type of activity or noise could trigger a call from you to the police.
- 3 Show students what it means to be neighborly, and they will return the goodwill. Let students know that you are willing to share resources and provide support, whether it's a hammer, a cup of sugar, or advice.
- 4 Seek help if a conflict arises. If you want to explore how a facilitator or mediator might help with a situation, contact UO Conflict Resolution Services.

Tips for dealing with incidents that affect your neighborhood livability

- 1 If at all possible, first discuss your concerns and expectations with your neighbors. They may or may not know that their behavior affects you.
- 2 If illegal activity is occurring (see “Know the Law” on pages 10–11), call the Eugene Police Department (EPD) at 541-682-5111. If it's an emergency, call 911.
- 3 Report the incident by e-mailing goodneighbor@uoregon.edu. See “Steps to report off-campus incidents involving inappropriate student behavior” at gcr.uoregon.edu/community-relations.

Be Safe

Protect yourself and your belongings

Neighborhoods near campus have the highest rates of property crime in Eugene. Why? Because criminals know that students have items they want and think they are more vulnerable! Learn what steps you can take now to help protect yourself!

Protect yourself

- Know your surroundings and use the buddy system.
- Use lighted paths after dark, and avoid bushes or dense shrubbery.
- If going out alone, let someone know where and when you will return.
- Call 911 immediately if you see something suspicious or someone is in danger.

Help for students who have experienced sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, or dating/domestic violence

The University of Oregon is committed to ensuring that all students have access to a quality learning experience and the opportunity to pursue their academic goals in a safe, supportive learning environment. Any form of sexual harassment or sexual assault that interferes with a student's ability to be an engaged learner is contrary to the community values of the institution. The UO does not tolerate sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, gender-based stalking and bullying, and other forms of harassment on or off campus.

There are many campus and community resources for students who have been hurt, including comprehensive supports, services, and accommodations to ensure that students can continue their academic programs. Students may call the university's 24-hour hotline at 541-346-SAFE (7233) to receive support, learn their options to receive help, and report the situation. See more resources on page 14–15.

For more information: safe.uoregon.edu

Protect your property

Theft-of-bicycle prevention

In order for the UO Department of Parking and Transportation to assist the campus community with the protection of their bicycles, ALL are required to be registered. Registration is free and is recorded systematically so in the case of a theft or bike lock incident, the department may be able to assist in retrieving the stolen items or removing a lock. Register your bike online at parking.uoregon.edu/content/bicycle-registration.

Theft-from-vehicle prevention

Recent theft-from-vehicle data indicate laptops, clothes, and stereo equipment are among the most commonly stolen property.

- Lock your vehicle every time you leave it.
- Never leave valuables in plain view even when your car is locked. If you must carry valuables, use your trunk or put valuables out of sight before you arrive at your destination.
- Never keep your vehicle title, credit cards, wallet, purse, cash or other important documents inside your vehicle.

Burglary prevention

- Always lock doors and windows (including garage door), even when you're home.
- Record serial numbers and mark your valuable property with your driver's license number (i.e. OR1234567DL).
- Don't leave valuables visible through windows.
- Be aware of and report suspicious persons and circumstances to police at 541-682-5111.
- Contact a Eugene Police Department crime prevention specialist at 541-682-5178 for a free home safety inspection.
- Consider all means of entry, including your garage door remote; if you have one, treat these openers as if they were keys to your home!

Theft-of-vehicle prevention

- Roll up windows, lock your vehicle doors, and take your key!
- Never leave your vehicle unattended while it is running.
- Park in well-lit areas.
- Use your alarm or invest in an antitheft device such as a steering wheel lock. EPD is offering these for sale at the wholesale price of $12.50. You can buy one at the Eugene police substation at E. 13th Avenue and Alder Street.

Ordinance on Unruly Gatherings

What is it?

A new law that holds individuals criminally and civilly responsible for hosting or allowing an unruly event or social gathering where alcohol is served or consumed, and where any two or more violations occur. There is no minimum on the number of guests who have to be at a party for the hosts to be subject to the ordinance.

What could it cost you?

Violators will be issued citations of up to $1,000, and repeat offenders will also have to pay for police, fire, and emergency response costs, as well as the cost of repairing damage to public property.

How to stay in control

- 1 Keep the party small. Avoid advertising parties on social media.
- 2 Be courteous—keep the noise down.
- 3 Refuse entrance to uninvited guests.
- 4 Get to know your neighbors. Exchange phone numbers and communicate before you have a party.
- 5 Verify the age of the guests.
- 6 Control quantity and access to alcohol.
- 7 The new ordinance includes an “affirmative defense” to those who ask for police help in shutting down a party. Ask for help and lower your chances of getting a fine.

uodos.uoregon.edu/aod.aspx

YOU DON'T LIVE AT AUTZEN STADIUM

Your party doesn't have to sound like a football game to be fun

Call the Eugene Police for assistance with uninvited guests or if the party becomes unruly
541-682-5111

Know how to throw a responsible party

- 1 Control the guest list. Don't let random people who are walking around looking for a party into your house.
- 2 No minors. If you choose to serve alcohol, ensure that you only serve to persons twenty-one years of age or older.
- 3 Plan ahead. Notify your neighbors in advance of the date, times, and location of the party, and a contact name and number in case problems arise.
- 4 Monitor noise levels. Keep doors and windows closed.

- 5 Discourage drinking games.
- 6 Clean up debris from your yard or the street.
- 7 Prevent drunk driving.
- 8 Safety first. If you are concerned for a friend's medical safety, such as alcohol poisoning, call 911 immediately.
- 9 Cooperate with police. If contacted by police or other authorities, be respectful and be compliant. Never interfere with police; use common sense.

What is iHost?

iHost is a movement to educate young adults on how to host responsible parties.

The creation of the Ordinance on Unruly Gatherings (OUG), most commonly known as the Social Host Ordinance, was not created to outlaw parties, rather to hold party hosts responsible for allowing an unruly gathering to take place.

How can the OUG impact students?

Students who host parties within the Eugene city limits would be subject to the ordinance on unruly gatherings if they are involved in hosting or promoting parties that become unruly. Under this ordinance, the social host does not have to be present at the unruly gathering, event or gathering to be criminally responsible if determined he or she had a significant role in organizing and/or promoting the party.

How many people at my party constitutes an unruly gathering? The ordinance specifies that just two people have to be at a party to be cited for the OUG. The main factor isn't the number of people, it's how your party is viewed.

What's considered a drink? A standard drink is equal to 13.7 grams of pure alcohol, this roughly equates to 12-ounces of beer, 8-ounces of malt liquor, 5-ounces of wine, and 1.5-ounces of liquor (gin, rum, vodka, whisky, etc.)

Will coffee make me sober up more quickly? Actually, no. And combining caffeine and alcohol introduces other concerns such as dehydration and affecting the body's ability to regulate temperature. The only thing that can sober you up is time. Drinking lots of water will decrease the possibility of dehydration.

What can you do to help someone who has a drinking problem? First and foremost, be a friend. Your concern about their drinking habits might save their life. Encourage your friend to stop drinking or to seek professional help.

What should I do if I am drunk and need to get home? First, be smart and don't drive home. There is nothing important enough to get behind the wheel of a car after drinking. Call a friend, a cab, or if you're a UO student call the Designated Driver Shuttle.

Remember, in Oregon you can get a DUI on your bike or unicycle too!

City of Eugene Parking

eparkeugene.com

The City of Eugene manages the on-street parking around the campus area, including meters, two-hour parking zones, citations, and residential parking permits. If you have a question, please call 541-682-5729 or e-mail parking@ci.eugene.or.us. Every City of Eugene parking meter has the phone number on it too.

2014–15

Residential Parking Permit Zones (RPZ) renewals information

The City's RPZ program permit renewals will begin on August 25 this year, as the current permit expires on August 31, 2014. The City is now contracting with the University of Oregon's Department of Parking and Transportation, located at 1401 Walnut Street, 97403. Please visit www.eparkeugene.com for more information on permit requirements, such as proof of residency, driver's license, and vehicle title or registration.

For residents in zones A, B, C, E, F, G, and J, the number of permits is limited to the number of vehicles that can legally park adjacent to your property. In most locations, it is about 2 permits. If there are more than 2 vehicles that want a permit at your address, then the permits are issued on a first come, first served basis for the year. It is not the City's responsibility to provide on-street parking for apartment complexes. Please check with your landlord prior to signing the lease.

For residents in zones H and D, the City manages parking demand by issuing a higher-priced and quarterly bumper permit in this zone ($180 per quarter).
