

Dear Policy Makers and Community Leaders,

We invite you to meet new leaders at the University of Oregon to learn how the UO drives our local and state economy and then watch the Civil War game between the UO and OSU women's basketball teams at Matthew Knight Arena at our February 25 "Explore Oregon" event.

You'll meet the UO's newest administrators including Vice President for Research and Innovation & Dean of the Graduate School, Kimberly Espy, and Vice President for Finance and Administration, Jamie Moffitt. These leaders manage portfolios that together directly touch broad aspects of our state and community.

After the program we hope you will join us in cheering on academic All-American Amanda Johnson, stars Jasmin Holliday and Nia Jackson, and the rest of the Ducks women as they take on the Beavers in the fierce civil war matchup at Matthew Knight Arena.

The event takes place Saturday, February 25, 12:30 p.m., beginning with a reception and light refreshments, with remarks at 1:00pm.

Tipoff for the game is at 2pm.

Cost of the event is $15.00, which covers the cost of reserved seating at the game and pre-game refreshments. Please feel free to bring a guest or more if you like.
