

Explore Oregon

January 23, 2011

Matthew Knight Arena

Policy makers and civic and community leaders are invited to our latest Explore Oregon event, at which you'll experience the newly opened Matthew Knight Arena firsthand. "Explore Oregon" is a series of events tailored for policy makers and civic and community leaders. Each program is a stand-alone opportunity to learn about an aspect of the University of Oregon in some depth.

The next explore Oregon Event will take place from 10:30am-12pm on January 23, 2011, and will include a tour of the Matthew Knight Arena Facility with UO President Richard Lariviere and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Rob Mullens.

After the tour participants can stay to watch UO women's basketball game to be held in the new venue. The fast paced "run and gun" style Ducks, led by academic all-American and Pac-10 leading scorer and recent player of the week Amanda Johnson, will take on their rivals, the Oregon State Beavers, so those of you who are Beaver Believers can cheer on your team as well!

Basketball tickets are $11.00. Please feel free to bring a guest or two if you like. Tickets are for reserved seating. For more information about Matt Arena, go to <http://matthewknightarena.com/>

Click here for online registration, or mail a check, made out to "University of Oregon Alumni Association" to Public and Government Affairs, 7 Johnson Hall, 1292 University of Oregon, Eugene OR 97403-1292. Deadline to register is Wednesday, January 19. More information about parking and meeting locations will be sent to participants upon registration.

Explore Oregon is a program organized by the UO Office of Government and community Relations. For more information, call (541) 346-5020 or email gcr@uoregon.edu.